Next steps

- Print or save a PDF record of your director ID.
- Give your director ID to the person responsible for maintaining the records of any companies that you are a director of. This may be the company secretary, another director or an authorised agent.

Protect yourself

Your director ID confirms your identity and your relationships to a company. Only give your written consent to being appointed as a director of a company if you will play an active role in overseeing the company's business affairs.

If you suspect someone has been misusing your identity or director ID, contact us (<https://www.abrs.gov.au/contact-us>).
