For Your Information

*Scammers may contact customers via phone, SMS or email claiming to be from a phone company or even impersonating NAB. They may insist on gaining remote access to your device, then ask you to pay a fee to fix a problem or provide your details to prevent fraud. Never give these callers access to your devices. You should also never provide your personal/banking details over the phone, unless you made the call to a publicly listed number. Make sure you regularly update your devices and anti-virus software. If you believe you've given remote access to your devices or shared your personal/banking details with a scammer, please contact NAB immediately using the number listed on this statement.
