14. MISCELLANEOUS

14.1 Assignment

A party may only dispose of, deal with, declare a trust over or otherwise create an interest in, its rights under this document with the prior consent of each other party.

14.2 Discretion in Exercising Rights and Giving Consents

A party may exercise a right or remedy or give or refuse its consent in any way it considers appropriate (including by imposing conditions), unless this document expressly states otherwise.

14.3 No Warranty by Giving Consent

By giving its approval or consent, a party does not make or give any warranty or representation as to any circumstance relating to the subject matter of the consent or approval.

14.4 No Liability for Loss

A party is not liable to another party for loss caused by the exercise or attempted exercise of, failure to exercise, or delay in exercising a right or remedy under this document.

14.5 Conflict of Interest

A party's rights and remedies under this document may be exercised even if it involves a conflict of interest or a party has a personal interest in their exercise.

14.6 Remedies Cumulative

The rights and remedies provided in this document are in addition to other rights and remedies given by law independently of this document, except to the extent that those other rights and remedies are expressly excluded in this document.

14.7 Exclusion of Contrary Legislation

Any legislation that diminishes the obligation of a party, or adversely affects the exercise by a party of a right or remedy, under or relating to this document is excluded to the full extent permitted by law.

14.8 Amendment

This document can only be amended, supplemented, novated or replaced by another document signed by the parties.

14.9 Waiver

A right under this document can only be waived by notice signed by the party or parties waiving the right. A party does not waive its rights under this document because it grants an extension or forbearance to any other party. A waiver of a right on one or more occasions does not operate as a waiver of that right if that right arises again. The exercise of a right does not prevent any further exercise of that right or of any other right. If a party does not exercise a right or remedy fully or at a given time, the party may still exercise it later.

14.10 No Merger

None of the rights and obligations of a party under this document merge:

- (a) on completion of any transaction contemplated by this document;
- (b) with any Security Interest, Guarantee, judgement or other right or remedy that a party may hold at any time; or
- (c) as a consequence of anything done under this document, and those rights and obligations at all times remain in full force and effect.

14.13 Giving Effect to this Document

Each party agrees, at its own expense, to do anything (including ensuring that its employees and agents do anything) that any other party reasonably requires (such as obtaining consents, signing and producing documents) as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to the provisions of this document and the transactions contemplated by it.

14.14 Entire Agreement

This document embodies the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, understandings, negotiations, warranties and representations on the subject matter of this document.

The parties acknowledge that they have not relied upon any representations or warranties in executing this document, except for those contained in this document.

14.15 Construction

No rule of construction applies to the disadvantage of a party because that party was responsible for the preparation of this document.

14.16 Severability

If the whole, or any part, of a provision of this document is void, unenforceable or illegal in a jurisdiction, it is severed for that jurisdiction. The remainder of this document has full force and effect, and the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction is not affected. This clause has no effect if the severance materially alters the nature or intended effect of this document.

14.17 Execution under Power of Attorney or Agency

Each person who executes this document as:

- (a) attorney for a party, or
- (b) agent of a party,

warrants that he or she has authority to do so, and will produce written evidence of that authority to any party who requests it.

14.18 Time of the Essence

Time is of the essence with respect to all provisions of this document that specify a time for performance.

14.19 Governing Law

This document is governed by the law in force in Queensland, Australia. Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts exercising jurisdiction in Queensland, and any court that may hear appeals from any of those courts for any proceeding in connection with this document, and waives any right it may have to claim that those courts are an inconvenient forum.

14.20 Counterparts

This document may be executed in counterparts. A counterpart may be a copy of this document printed from a facsimile or email transmission. All counterparts together are taken to constitute one instrument.

- (b) The Borrower will ratify anything the attorney does under clause 14.21(a).
