Nomination of dependants

With indicative death benefit nomination

No binding Death benefit nomination

(This Application Form must be inserted after the Product Disclosure Statement)

Important information for completion

[This constitutes a direction to the trustee of the fund as to the manner of apportionment of any benefit from the fund that is payable upon your death; which direction is a non-binding death benefit notice in spite of the existence of which the trustee shall retain its discretion as to how to apply any benefit that is so payable upon your death.]

1. This nomination notice is not binding. The trustee will take it into account in the event that a benefit is paid from the fund on your death. However, the trustee has complete discretion as to which of your dependants and/or legal personal representative may receive the benefit and in what proportions. If there are no dependants or legal personal representative, the benefit may be payable as per the terms of the deed. Your death benefit can be paid as a pension or a lump sum.
2. This nomination notice must be fully completed in accordance with the details below
  - the beneficiaries named in this notice must be dependants and/or your legal personal representative.
  - Your dependants are your spouse, de facto spouse and your children (including step, adopted and ex-nuptial children), and any other person financially dependent upon you at the time of your death.
  - Your legal personal representative is either the person named as your executor in your will, or, if you do not have a valid will at the date of your death, the person who, as your next of kin, applies for and has been granted letters of administration for your estate. Should you wish to nominate your legal personal representative, please write "legal personal representative" as the name of the beneficiary.
  - for each person nominated, you must provide both their relationships to you and the proportion of any benefit that is to be paid to each.
