Successful Completion of Institutional Offer Summary of Retail Entitlement Offer terms

- $244 million fully underwritten equity offering
- $183 million raised from completion of the Institutional Entitlement Offer and Institutional Placement
- Strong support from existing shareholders and new investors
- Fully underwritten Retail Entitlement Offer expected to raise approximately $61 million

Cooper Energy Limited (ASX: COE) (“Cooper Energy” or “the Company”) announces it has completed the institutional component of its fully underwritten accelerated non-renounceable 2-for-5 pro-rata entitlement offer (“Institutional Entitlement Offer”) and the placement of new shares (“Institutional Placement” and together “Institutional Offer”) as announced on 20 June 2022.

The Institutional Offer and the Retail Entitlement Offer described below are primarily to fund the upfront payment for the acquisition of the Orbost Gas Processing Plant from the APA Group (“APA”), to pay associated transaction costs and for general corporate purposes.

The Institutional Offer raised $183 million at an offer price of $0.245 per new share (“New Share”).

The Institutional Offer received strong support from existing shareholders as well as several high-quality new investors, with approximately 95% of eligible shareholders subscribing for entitlements.

Cooper Energy Managing Director Mr David Maxwell said: “The level of support from our existing institutional shareholders for our transformational acquisition of the Orbost Gas Processing Plant is very pleasing.

“Their longstanding support, and that extended by high quality new investors, are votes of confidence in the acquisition and Cooper Energy’s broader strategy. We look forward to successful completion of the acquisition and using our integrated gas supply hub in the Gippsland region, together with our Otway assets, to create further value for shareholders.”

Cooper Energy expects its trading halt to be lifted and Cooper Energy shares to recommence trading on an “ex-entitlement” basis from market open on 23 June 2022.

New Shares issued under the Institutional Entitlement Offer will rank equally with existing shares on issue and are expected to settle on 30 June 2022. New Shares will be allotted on 1 July 2022 and will commence trading on a normal settlement basis on the ASX on the same day.
