An investment in a Fund is not a deposit with, or any other liability of, Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141 or any other company in the Westpac Group of companies. It is subject to investment risk, including possible delays in repayment or loss of income and principal invested. Note 1: Tax-free amounts and tax deferred amounts (including returns of capital) are included in 'Other non-assessable amounts'.

Note 2: The AMIT cost base net amount is the Responsible Entity's estimate of the adjustment you need to make to the cost base of your units in the Fund. The specific tax treatment of this adjustment will depend on the investors individual circumstances and the investor should seek their own tax advice in relation to this.

Note 3: Your AMMA statement is your summary of the components of income attributed to you from the funds you have invested in. You may not receive an AMMA statement where the fund has no income to attribute.

AMIT = Attribution Managed Investment Trust is the tax description for MITs that satisfy new taxation regulations.

BT Split Growth Fund

The Responsible Entity listed above (referred to as the 'company') has issued this statement.

An investment in a Fund is not a deposit with, or any other liability of, Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141 or any other company in the Westpac Group of companies. It is subject to investment risk, including possible delays in repayment or loss of income and principal invested. None of Westpac Banking Corporation or (any of) its related entities stands behind or otherwise guarantees the capital value or investment performance of a Fund.

Some fees and expenses are deducted from the Fund as a whole; these include the investment managers' fees and expenses we incur in managing the Fund. These fees and expenses are not directly deducted from your investment. However, when they're deducted from the value of the Fund, they reduce the price of units in the Fund and, therefore, the value of your investment. The Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for the Fund gives you more information about these fees and expenses. A copy of the latest PDS is available from your adviser or by contacting us.

Complaints

If you have a concern or complaint concerning your investment please call us on 132 135. If you're dissatisfied with the response, you may raise the matter directly with the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001 (telephone 1300 780 808).

Expense Recovery

We're entitled to be reimbursed for expenses incurred in operating the fund generally, where such expenses are properly incurred. Expenses may include the payment of statutory charges, licensing fees, registry costs, audit fees, government duties, the cost of reports and various other disbursements. The amount charged is the actual amount of the expense incurred. These expenses may be passed on to all investors in the Fund in accordance with Corporations Law.

Regulatory Change Expense Recovery

Recent regulatory reforms have required BT to undertake a significant program of work to implement the reforms. To help cover the significant cost of implementing these reforms, the Fund's Indirect Cost Ratio may increase by up to 0.10%.

Annual Reports are available online

Annual reports for each of your investment options are issued online at the end of September each year. If you'd like a copy of the most recent annual report for the financial year ended 30 June, please visit bt.com.au or call us on 132 135.

Annual Investment Income Report to the ATO

From the 2017/18 financial year, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) has issued a new regime requiring data to be reported on transactions involving shares and units in managed investment schemes. One of the main aims of this new requirement is to enable the ATO to assist taxpayers with the preparation of tax returns and activity statements. These transactions will now be reported in addition to annual investment income, and as such information appearing on your Capital Gains Tax (CGT) statement has also been forwarded to the ATO to comply with this new requirement.

Information about distribution payments

Distributions are not always payable for an investment option each quarterly statement period. Some investment options may distribute less frequently eg. some investment options may only distribute up to once every 12 months (annually) or up to once every 6 months (bi-annually). You can find information about how often your investment options distribute in the relevant Fund Fact Sheet available at bt.com.au.

Distributions can be made up of both income and realised capital gains. Regardless of how often your investment option generally distributes, the distribution amount that you receive for each of your investment options can vary in each distribution period, and it is possible for a distribution to not be paid at all.

Reasons why a distribution amount may vary or may not be paid for an investment option in a particular distribution period can include:

- Amounts available for distribution to investors will vary depending on a number of factors - for example, income received from underlying investments, interest rates, exchange rates and market conditions.
- Some funds are designed to provide long-term growth rather than a regular income stream to investors.
- A fund may not distribute if it hasn't received any income or gains in that financial year or the fund is carrying forward revenue or capital losses from a previous period. This may be the case even if positive returns are experienced by the investment option in the current period.
- Distribution payments can be affected by the timing of income payments from the underlying fund or assets (eg. where an underlying investment distributes every 6 months, the income will only be received from the underlying investment for distribution every second quarter).
- Some components of distributions are only distributed at the end of the financial year (eg. realised capital gains and currency gains from hedging).
