Certificate of Insurance and Tax Invoice

This Certificate of Insurance is confirmation of your Woolworths Landlords Insurance cover(s). We would like to thank you for trusting us with your insurance.

What you need to do

We advised you of your duty of disclosure when you applied for cover (which we set out below) and of the importance of being honest in answering our questions. We rely on the information you provide us with to decide whether to insure you and the terms on which we will insure you. You also need to:

- check and make sure the information in this Certificate of Insurance is accurate and that the cover provided suits your needs; and
- check that your answers and confirmations to various questions we asked which we have printed on this certificate are accurate and that nothing has changed.

If any information is inaccurate or there have been any changes, please contact us as if it is not accurate or up to date you may not have cover.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into this contract of insurance with us, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. We may ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms. If we do, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in their answer. It is important that you understand that you are answering for yourself and anyone else to whom these questions apply.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.
