Concessional contributions

Decisions made with this information can have tax consequences.

The contributions data that appears on this screen has been reported to us by your client's super fund (or funds), and we have determined them to be concessional contributions.

There is a cap on the amount of concessional contributions your client can make to their super fund (or funds) each financial year without paying extra tax.

Financial year

2019-20

i Your client is within their concessional contributions cap

Annual concessional contributions cap		$25,000.00
Contributions counting towards your client's concessional contributions cap	See ZZ	-$1,400.00
Unused concessional contributions cap for this year		$26,400.00

Key messages:

- > Your client may also have unused carry forward concessional contributions cap amounts from a previous year (or years)
- > Concessional contributions made to a self-managed super fund will not be displayed until we have received and processed the annual return.
- > Refer your client to their own records or contact their fund (or funds) (after 31 October) to obtain more up-to-date information. You may also like to recommend they seek professional advice.

Data last updated 21 November 2020

Employer contributions

Only contributions paid by your employer from 1 July 2018 are displayed.

If an employer is not listed:

- > the due date for the employer to pay contributions may not have passed
- > the fund may not be required to report employer contributions to us.

Refer to the fund's online portal or contact the employer if you believe employer contributions should be displayed.

Carry forward concessional contributions

Decisions made with this information can have tax consequences.

The contributions data that appears on this screen has been reported to us by your client's super fund (or funds), and we have determined them to be concessional contributions.

Your client's total superannuation balance affects their unused concessional contributions cap.

Financial year

2019-20

⊖ Your client has no unused concessional contributions cap

Total carry forward concessional contributions cap	$25,000.00
Concessional contributions counting towards your client's cap	$25,839.98
Unused concessional contributions cap available to carry forward	$0.00

Key messages:

- > If your client's Total superannuation balance is:
  - > less than $500,000 on 30 June of the previous financial year, they are eligible to carry forward their unused concessional contributions.
  - > $500,000 or more on 30 June of the previous financial year, they are not eligible to carry forward their unused concessional contributions.
- > If your client makes concessional contributions in excess of their annual cap for the current year, they may be able to use their carry forward amounts (if they meet the eligibility criteria).
- > Concessional contributions made to a self-managed super fund will not be displayed until reported to us in the annual return.
- > Refer your client to their own records or contact their fund (or funds) (after 31 October) to obtain more up-to-date information. You may also like to recommend they seek professional advice.

- › We will send your client a determination with further information and actions required when they lodge their income tax return for this financial year

Annual concessional contributions cap	$25,000.00
Contributions counting towards your client's concessional contributions cap	$25,839.98
Excess concessional contributions	$839.98
Unused carry forward concessional contributions applied from a previous year (or years)	$0.00

Excess concessional contributions Fixed at ZZ Wp $839.98
MLC super fund incorrectly reported employer super, instead of personal non-concessional

Key messages:

- › Your client will pay more tax if they continue to make concessional contributions.
- › Your client's excess concessional contributions will count towards their non-concessional contributions cap.
- › Concessional contributions made to a self-managed super fund will not be displayed until we have received and processed the annual return.
- › Refer your client to their own records or contact their fund (or funds) (after 31 October) to obtain more up-to-date information. You may also like to recommend they seek professional advice.

Transfer balance cap

i Most transactions are reported to us by your super providers. There are some events you need to report to us, including any loss of super from fraud or dishonesty, bankruptcy payments and family law payment splits. You also need to report personal injury super contributions made prior to 1 July 2007. To report these to us, use the Transfer balance account event form.

! No transactions were found. If you believe this is incorrect, contact your super provider to check whether they have reported this information to us.
