Hi Julie

It seems Grubers did not check with you at the end of 2019 year whether there were any more expenses relating to the insurance claim, which I assume must have been in the 2018 financial year.

Please see below all my correspondence with Grubers regarding this.

I will need to make an adjustment this 2020 year to clear the account and credit back the remaining amount to insurance recoveries and note for the auditor that this should have been done in the 2019 year.

Regards

Hi Tania,

I've checked with Homey, and unfortunately, we don't have any further information on file. Would you mind getting in touch with the client to discuss?

Kind Regards,

Ashleigh Hartley

Hi Ashleigh

Thank you for the email.

The last expense against the sundry creditor account as per the report emailed to me on 12th July (see below) was on 24.10.2018.

Do you have on file where the Trustees have advised you that further expenses from the insurance claim were to come in the following year, considering no further expenses were applied in the 8 month period from October?

Note there were no repairs/maintenance expenses in 2020 year.

Regards

Hi Casey,

I've had a chat with Homey who takes care of the superfunds.

She has said that the opening balance of 2019 is $7,850 + $505 which is insurance claim proceeds. The General Ledgers records repairs and maintenance against the insurance claim.

Each transaction after the opening balance are all repairs and maintenance against the insurance claim.

I hope this helps,

Kind Regards,

Ashleigh Hartley

Hi Hanna

Thanks for the email but I actually need to know what the balance amount of $2437.63 is made up of.

Could you check and let me know please.
