Note: You cannot nominate a reversionary beneficiary once your pension has commenced. For more information about reversionary beneficiaries, including who can nominate, refer to the Product Disclosure Statement.

Important information about making a reversionary beneficiary nomination:

- The longer of you or your reversionary beneficiary's life expectancies will be used to calculate the deductible amount for the purposes of assessing your eligibility for Social Security benefits.
- You may only nominate a tax dependant as your reversionary beneficiary. Please see the Product Disclosure for more information or speak to your financial adviser.
- At the date of your death, the person you select must meet the description you have specified below. For example, your spouse must still be your spouse at the date of your death. Unless your nominated beneficiary meets that description, we will not automatically pay a benefit to them even if they qualify on another ground, for example, as being a financial dependant.
- There may be tax implications and estate planning implications involved in nominating eligible dependants. PLEASE SPEAK TO YOUR FINANCIAL ADVISER AND LEGAL ADVISER before completing section 5.
- Refer to 'what happens on death?' in Part 1 of the Product Disclosure Statement for more information.
