General conditions

What you should tell us and why

When you become a member with RACQ and take out, renew, extend or vary your insurance policy, it is important that you understand you are answering our questions for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the policy.

You should always give us complete and honest answers to all the questions we ask you, by answering questions about yourself and other named policy holders to the best of your knowledge.

If you breach your duty to us, we may be entitled to refuse to pay your claim, reduce the amount payable for a claim or cancel your policy. If your breach is fraudulent, we can also cancel the policy from the beginning.

Changes to your circumstances

You must tell us as soon as possible if:

Any details on your certificate of insurance are no longer accurate and complete including where:

- There is a change to the construction of your building.
- Your building is no longer used exclusively for residential purposes.
- Your building becomes unoccupied.
- You have had any insurance policy refused, cancelled, or voided.
- Changes at the insured address, including renovations, alterations, or construction to your building, may increase the chance of loss or damage to your building or common contents.
- You plan to change your community management module.

If any of these changes occur, this may affect the premium and excesses applied to your policy.

If you would like to know more

If you would like to know more about how this might affect you, please contact us by calling us 7 days a week on 13 1905 or visiting us at <https://www.racq.com.au/support/faqs>

Other matters in this certificate of insurance

You have previously told us each of the other matters stated in this certificate of insurance. Please read the certificate of insurance carefully for all of the information you have previously told us.

You must tell us about any change to this information.
