U1, U2, U3.

Dear THE TRUSTEE FOR SEAN AND JANE CARROLL SUPER FUND,

Thank you for insuring with RACQ. We are writing to highlight changes to your Household Insurance policy.

We've improved our Product Disclosure Statement for you

We have redesigned our Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) to make it easier to read and understand how we're protecting you.

Some of the key improvements include

- New, fresh, modern look and feel with simplified layout,
- Coloured tabs to help you navigate the document, and
- Clearer breakdown of product inclusions, exclusions and benefits.

Important information about your policy

Insurance is designed to protect you when you need it most, and we're committed to continuing to provide you with affordable products. This is why we have made changes to some specific policy terms, which we have summarised below.

Insured Events - Storm Exclusions

We have simplified the exclusion for loss or damage to paint and/or external coatings of a building.

For further details, please refer to the insured event of 'Storm' in your PDS.

Disclosure changes

We have made some changes around what you need to tell us when you renew an insurance policy.

Previously, you were required to tell us everything that was known to you which would be relevant to us when making our decision to renew an existing policy.

From 21 September 2021, you will only be required to answer specific and relevant questions that we ask. You should answer those questions honestly and completely, and to the best of your knowledge.

For further details, please refer to the "General Conditions" section in your PDS.

Please carefully read your Certificate of Insurance and your PDS to ensure the cover continues to be right for you.

We're here to help

If you have any questions about these changes, please visit our website at racq.com/insurance for more information.

POLICY NUMBER

54605776PH

It's time to renew your insurance.

Your current policy expires at midnight on 30 March 2022 and we would like you to stay with us.

What next?

1. Read your Certificate of Insurance, including the General conditions, your Household Insurance Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), any applicable Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement (SPDS) and Key Facts Sheet (KFS). These are the terms and conditions of your policy. It is important that your policy is suitable for your needs.
2. Review your selected cover, nominated sum/s insured and any Optional Benefits available to ensure this cover is right for you. Keeping your policy and your details up to date helps you get the most value out of your insurance.
3. This document contains important information about your policy and is your Tax Invoice and Certificate of Insurance when paid. Please keep it in a safe place.
4. Choose a payment method and make your payment by 30 March 2022.
5. To view your insurance details, update your personal information, or make a payment, please visit your My RACQ Profile online at racq.com/login or call us any time on 13 1905.

What will happen if you do not pay on time?

If we do not receive your payment by the 30 March 2022 you will not be covered by this insurance.

General conditions

What you should tell us and why

When you become a member with RACQ and take out, renew, extend or vary your insurance policy, it is important that you understand you are answering our questions for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the policy.

You should always give us complete and honest answers to all the questions we ask you, by answering questions about yourself and other named policy holders to the best of your knowledge.

If you breach your duty to us, we may be entitled to refuse to pay your claim, reduce the amount payable for a claim or cancel your policy. If your breach is fraudulent, we can also cancel the policy from the beginning.

Changes to your circumstances

You must tell us as soon as possible if:

- You or any person who permanently lives with you has been convicted of any criminal offence.
- You have had any insurance policy refused, cancelled, or voided.
- Any details on your certificate of insurance are no longer accurate and complete including where:
 - You move home.
 - There is a change to the materials used in the constructions of your roof, or walls.
 - The occupancy of your home changes including where: there are changes in how your home is being used, whether it will be unoccupied for a period greater than 60 days, or if some or part of your home is being rented out.
 - You run a business from your home.
 - Changes at the insured address, including changes to security or renovations, as this may increase the chance of loss or damage to your home or contents.

If any of these changes occur, this may affect the premium and excesses applied to your policy.

If you would like to know more

If you would like to know more about how this might affect you, please contact us by calling us 7 days a week on 13 1905 or visiting us at <https://www.racq.com.au/support/faqs>

Other matters in this certificate of insurance

If there is no "Home security details" section on this certificate of insurance, you have advised us there is no security installed, is this correct? If you have security installed that does not appear on this certificate of insurance, please call us on 13 1905.

You have previously told us each of the other matters stated in this certificate of insurance. Please read the certificate of insurance carefully for all of the information you have previously told us.

You must tell us about any change to this information.

Why does your premium change?

Even if your individual circumstances have not changed, your premium is likely to change every year. Your premium is based on a number of factors including your risk address, age, insurance claims history, and the value of what you are insuring. The chance of loss or damage is different for everyone, so at RACQ, we calculate your premium based on your individual circumstances.

Changes to your premium or excess may also be caused by external factors such as the number of claims we receive, changes to business operations and changes to our cost of providing insurance to you.
