(i) no reversionary beneficiary has been nominated by the Member or determined by the Trustee; or

(ii) the reversionary beneficiary nominated by the Member is not a dependant of the Member at the time of death of the Member, or is not a person who is eligible to be paid a benefit in the form of a pension under the relevant law, the balance of the pension must be dealt with as follows:

- if required by a Binding Death Benefit Nomination or other binding instrument given by the Member or beneficiary to the Trustee, the Trustee must pay or apply the Account Based Pension balance in accordance with that Binding Death Benefit Nomination or binding instrument; and
- if a Binding Death Benefit Nomination or other binding instrument had not been given to the Trustee by the Member or the beneficiary with respect to the Account Based Pension, or to the extent that a Binding Death Benefit Nomination or other binding instrument given by the Member or beneficiary to the Trustee in respect of the Account Based Pension is not in effect or cannot be given effect under the relevant law, pay or apply the Account Based Pension to or for the benefit of one or more of the Member's or beneficiary's dependants and Legal Personal Representative in such proportions, form, manner and at such times as the Trustee, in its discretion, and taking into account the provisions of any Non-Binding Death Benefit Nomination given by the Member or the beneficiary to the Trustee, determines from time to time; and
- if there are no dependants and there is no Legal Personal Representative:
 - pay or apply the Account Based Pension balance for the benefit of such relatives of the Member or beneficiary or other persons as the Trustee determines, in such proportions, form, manner and at such times as the Trustee determines; or
