- (4) A person ceases to be a Member:
- (a) when he or she dies;
 - (b) when the total amount of all amounts payable under the Deed in respect of his or her membership has been paid or transferred; or
 - (c) when under the Deed any benefit payable to him or her or any person on his or her account ceases to be payable.

Transfers to Fund

- (5) The Trustee may, in consultation with the Actuary (if any), make such arrangements as it thinks proper with:-
- (a) the Member, or
 - (b) any previous employer of the Member, or
 - (c) the Trustees of any superannuation fund of which the Member was or is a Member, or,
 - (d) any of them,

for any transfer of assets to the Fund, and may make arrangements about any other matter which in the opinion of the Trustee is incidental to or consequent upon the transfer of such assets to the Fund.

Transfers from Fund

- (6) Should the Member become eligible to join another Regulated Superannuation Fund the Trustee may, if requested by the Member and authorised by the Relevant Law, in lieu of part or all of any Benefit to which the Member may be entitled under this Deed, transfer to the trustees of the fund such portion of the assets of the Fund as the Trustee, if necessary acting on the advice of the Actuary (if any), considers equitable having regard to the Member's accrued benefit at the date of transfer.

MEMBER TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

Information to be Provided on Request

17. (1) Every Member and every person claiming a benefit may be required, from time to time, to give to the Trustee information and produce to it documents, as the Trustee considers are required for the purpose of putting this Deed into effect, and for arranging insurances for the purposes of the Fund.

Trustee may refuse to Accept Contributions

- (2) The Trustee need not verify any information given under this clause but may in its absolute discretion refuse to accept contributions or further contributions and may refuse to pay benefits to or in respect of a Member or Beneficiary if information is not given by the employer, Member or Beneficiary, as the case may be.

ARBITRATION

18. If any question or dispute arises with respect to the Fund or this Deed, and if the Trustee so requires, the question or dispute may be referred to a single arbitrator agreed to by the parties to the question or dispute, or in default of agreement, to an arbitrator appointed pursuant to the statutory provisions applicable to arbitration in the State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia in which this Deed was executed.

FUND RECORDS

Trustee to Keep Records

19. (1) The Trustee must keep or cause to be kept a complete record of all persons who become Members of the Fund and of the income and expenditure of the Fund and all other matters essential for the working of the Fund, including any records required to be kept by the Relevant Law and may establish and maintain any accounts it considers suitable.

Record and Custody of Investments

- (2) The Trustee must keep appropriate records and accounts in proper order, and make suitable arrangements for their custody and for custody of documents relating to the investments and must retain the appropriate records and accounts for the time and in the manner prescribed under the Relevant Law.

Trustee Receipt

- (3) A receipt given on behalf of the Fund by the Trustee or by any other person who may from time to time be authorised by the Trustee in writing to receive any moneys of the Fund is a sufficient discharge to the person by whom the moneys are paid.

Each Member to have an Account

- (4) The Trustee must establish a Members Account in respect of each Member and such accounts as are considered necessary to which the Trustee must credit and debit amounts as the Trustee may from time to time determine.

RESERVE ACCOUNT

Trustee may Establish Reserve Account

20. (1) The Trustee may establish reserve accounts in respect of the Fund and may transfer to the credit of a reserve account any amount not credited to the Members Accounts as earnings.

Reserve Account separate from Other Accounts

- (2) Whilst any moneys are held in a reserve account, they do not form any part of any Members Account and any income earned and expenses incurred by the Fund on the moneys held in a reserve account must be credited or debited to the reserve account.

Use of Reserve Account

- (3) A reserve account may at the discretion of the Trustee be used for the following purposes:
- (a) To generally give effect to the reserving strategy established by the Trustee to smooth the investment earnings of the Fund;
 - (b) To provide for such contingencies as the Trustee determines;
 - (c) To augment the fund earning rate;
 - (d) To meet any Taxation payments payable by the Fund;
 - (e) To pay any expenses, charges, commission or brokerage payable by the

Fund;

- (f) To or for the benefit of a Member, Pensioner, Beneficiary or former Member including augmentation of the Accumulation Account or Pension Account on a basis that does not breach the Relevant Law; or
- (g) For any other purpose determined by the Trustee which does not breach the Relevant Law and which is not inconsistent with trust law.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions by Employer

21. (1) Subject to this clause and as authorised by the Relevant Law, an employer may contribute to the Fund in respect of the Member at a rate as may be agreed from time to time between the employer, the Member and the Trustee or as required by the Relevant Law.

Member Contributions

- (2) The Trustee may accept contributions by or in respect of a Member that are not contributions by an employer.

Refund of Contributions

- (3) As soon as reasonably possible after becoming aware that particular contributions may not be accepted in respect of a Member the Trustee must refund those contributions and for the purpose of determining the Member's interest in the Fund it is assumed that these contributions were not made to the Fund.

Splittable Contributions

- (4) The Trustee may if requested by a Member roll over, transfer or allot an amount of benefits, for the benefit of the Member's spouse, that is equal to an amount of splittable contributions made in respect of that Member in a manner permitted by the Relevant Law.

BENEFITS

Member entitled to Pension

22. (1) A Member who is entitled to receive a Pension in circumstances approved under the Relevant Law that can be supported by an amount equal to the Members Account standing in his or her name.

Trustee may Purchase Annuity

- (2) The Trustee may, at the request of a person entitled, pay all or part of any benefit payable pursuant to the provisions of the Deed to such regulated superannuation fund, or for the purchase of such annuity or pension (of any type and including a complying pension) as the person so entitled may request.

Benefit as a Lump Sum

- (3) The Member may at any time elect to receive part or all of his or her benefit as a lump sum rather than as a pension to which the Member has an entitlement.

Lump Sum may be Determined

- (4) On the written application of a Member or a Beneficiary, the Trustee will determine the amount of the lump sum payable and will commute to a lump sum benefit the whole or any part of any pension payable from the Fund to a Member or a Beneficiary, provided that:
- (a) the commutation of the benefit is permitted by the Relevant Law; or
 - (b) the amount of the commuted benefit including the value of any remaining pension is permitted by the Relevant Law.

Amounts to be Preserved

- (5) No amount that the Relevant Law requires to be preserved may be paid to a Member unless the payment is permitted by the Relevant Law.

Payment of Death Benefit

- (6) Except where a direction has been given under this Deed, any death benefit will be paid as the Trustee in its absolute discretion decides by way of purchased annuities, pensions (of any type) or other periodical payments (in each such case upon such terms as the Trustee may decide) or lump sum payments or any combination of such methods of payment, to any of:
- (a) one or more of the Dependants of the Member and in proportions as the Trustee in its absolute discretion decides; and
 - (b) the legal personal representative of a Member - and may take into account any specific instructions as to the payment of the death benefit that are included in a beneficiary nomination by the former Member or the last Will of the former Member.

Trustee may effect Policy of Insurance

- (7) The Trustee may effect any policy or policies of insurance on terms that the Trustee in its absolute discretion decides in respect of a Member for the purpose of providing a sum or sums on death or disablement of a Member.

Payment in Specie

- (8) The Trustee may with the consent of a Member or Beneficiary to whom a Benefit is payable transfer investments of the Fund of equivalent value to the Member or Beneficiary in lieu of paying the whole or part of the amount otherwise payable pursuant to the provisions of this Deed provided however that the Trustee is satisfied that the transfer is permitted by the Relevant Law.

PENSION CONDITIONSTrustee and Member may Agree on Pension

23. (1) The Trustee and the Member may agree that a pension be paid as provided by this Deed and in the absence of agreement, the Trustee may determine the basis on which the pension is paid.

Pension may not be Assigned

- (2) Pensions payable to a person from the Fund must not be assigned or otherwise transferred by that person (except to the extent permitted by this Deed) and must not be mortgaged or encumbered in any manner.

Pension may not be used as Security

- (3) Neither the capital value of any pension payable from the Fund nor any income from it, may be used as a security for a borrowing.

Pension Account

- (4) The Trustee may in relation to Members being paid a Pension separate the assets of the Members into a Pension Account for the purpose of enabling the payment of all or part of any liability in relation to the payment of the Pension as those liabilities fall due.

ACCOUNT-BASED PENSIONPension must be paid Annually

24. (1) A pension payable under this clause must be paid at least annually to the Member or to a Reversionary Beneficiary.

Amount of Pension

- (2) The annual amount of the pension must not be less than the minimum amounts stated in the Relevant Law and the pension payment must comply with the requirements of the Relevant Law.

Payment Dates

- (3) The pension may be paid on such dates and by installments of such amounts as the Trustee and the Member agree or, in the absence of agreement, as the Trustee determines and will cease to be payable if the Member's Benefit is reduced to nil.

Commutation

- (4) The Trustee must not permit a person in receipt of the pension to commute part or the whole of the Pension to a lump sum payment unless all requirements of the Relevant Law are satisfied.

Pension to be Paid to Reversionary Beneficiary

- (5) The Trustee and the Member may agree or, in the absence of agreement, the Trustee may determine that, on the death of a Member to whom the pension is being paid, a pension may be paid to one or more reversionary beneficiaries. The Trustee may pay the pension to any of the reversionary beneficiaries as it, in its absolute discretion, determines.

Reversionary Beneficiary Pension Conditions

- (6) The amount and the terms and conditions of the pension paid to a reversionary beneficiary under this clause may, in accordance with the Relevant Law, be agreed on by the reversionary beneficiary and the Trustee, but in the absence of agreement, the amount and the terms and conditions of the pension will be determined by the Trustee.

When Pension Ceases

- (7) The pension payable under this sub-clause ceases to be payable:
- (a) if the Member's Benefit is reduced to nil; or
 - (b) on the death of the Reversionary Beneficiary.

Pension on Death of a Member

- (8) When, in respect of a deceased Member, the pension:
- (a) ceases to be payable to all of the Member's Reversionary Beneficiary under paragraph(7); or

- (b) is not payable because the Member has no Reversionary Beneficiary; or
- (c) is not payable because the Trustee has determined to not pay the pension to any of the Member's Reversionary Beneficiaries-subject to any written direction signed by a Member, the balance of that Member's Benefit (if any) may be:

- (d) held by the Trustee on trust for the benefit of such one or more of the Member's Dependants, to be paid in a lump sum in such shares and proportions as the Trustee, in its absolute discretion, determines; or
- (e) paid to the Member's legal personal representative.

Trustee may Determine who to receive the Pension

- (9) If, after making enquiries that the Trustee regards as reasonable, the Trustee is unable to establish that there are any Dependants or a legal personal representative of the deceased Member, the Trustee may at its discretion pay the benefit to a person or persons selected by the Trustee.

ALLOCATED PENSION

- 25. If at the commencement of this Deed, a Member is in receipt of an Allocated Pension, that pension may continue to be paid under the terms and conditions that operated before the commencement of this Deed or, subject to the Relevant Law, may be converted to an Account-Based Pension payable pursuant to the preceding clause of this Deed.

MARKET LINKED PENSION

Pension only to Commence if Permitted

- 26. (1) A market linked pension (in this clause called "the pension") may not be commenced unless permitted by the Relevant Law..

Payment and Period of Pension

- (2) The pension must be paid at least annually to the Member or to a Reversionary Beneficiary during the period selected by the Member as allowed by the Relevant Law.

Amount of Pension

- (3) The annual amount of the pension must be determined in accordance with the Relevant Law.

Commutation

- (4) The Trustee must not permit a person in receipt of the Pension to commute part or the whole of the Pension to a lump sum payment unless permitted by the Relevant Law and all requirements of the Relevant Law are satisfied.

Pension Conditions

- (5) The pension payable under this clause:
- (a) does not have a residual capital value; and
