3. IT IS HEREBY FURTHER AGREED AND DECLARED by and between the parties as follows:-

- (1) If the said premises or any part thereof shall be destroyed or substantially damaged [without any negligence on the part of the Lessee or any person in the employ or under the control of the Lessee] by any insured risk or any other accidental cause whatsoever so as to be rendered unfit for use in connection with the permitted use hereof or any other use adopted by the Lessee with the Lessor's, written consent then and in any such case the rent hereby reserved and made payable or a fair proportion thereof according to the nature and extent of the damage sustained shall be suspended until the said premises shall again be rendered fit for such use PROVIDED that if the said premises are substantially destroyed and no insurance moneys are recoverable in respect of the loss or the insurance moneys recoverable are insufficient for complete reinstatement the Lessor may elect to determine the tenancy hereunder if the Lessor does not propose to reinstate the premises and in any case the lessee may elect to determine the tenancy hereunder if the Lessor is unable or unwilling to reinstate the said premises within four months from the date of destruction or damage to the said premises PROVIDED that the Lessor shall not in any event be bound to rebuild or restore the said premises to their exact former condition. If any dispute shall arise under this sub-clause as to whether a case for abatement of rent arises or the time during which abatement shall continue each party shall be entitled to appoint a qualified valuer to determine the matter in dispute aforesaid and in the event of such valuers being unable to agree on the determination of such matter a third valuer appointed by the President of the Australian Institute of Valuers & Land Economists Inc (SA Division) shall be entitled to make such determination and the parties hereto agree that the decision of such valuers or valuer as the case may be shall be final and conclusive and that the fees and expenses of such valuers or valuer shall be borne and paid by the Lessor and the Lessee in equal shares notwithstanding the result of any such determination. No compensation or other payment shall be payable by the Lessor to the Lessee by reason of the lessee having to vacate the said premises or procure or occupy other premises by reason of any loss or damage as aforesaid.

- (2) That if the rent hereby reserved or any other moneys payable by the Lessee hereunder or any part thereof shall at any time be in arrears for not less than fourteen (14) days [whether formally demanded or not] or if any covenant or agreement herein on the Lessee's part shall not be duly performed or observed or complied with and the Lessor has given notice to the Lessee in writing to make good such default within a reasonable period of time specified in such notice or if the Lessee being a Company shall go into liquidation other than voluntary liquidation for the purpose of reconstruction or if a Receiver or Official Manager of it shall be appointed or if any effective resolution be passed for its winding up other than for the purpose of reconstruction or if the Lessee or any Guarantor of the Lessee shall call a meeting of creditors or suffer his goods to be taken in execution or be convicted of a felony then it shall be lawful for the Lessor at any time thereafter to re-enter upon the said premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon this demise shall absolutely determine but without prejudice to claims by either party or to any rights of the Lessor against the Lessee or any Guarantor thereof for any antecedent breach of covenant and any goods or chattels or fixtures and fittings of the Lessee which may be at or may be left upon the premises at the expiration or sooner determination of this Lease or any renewal thereof may be removed by the Lessor and stored in such place as the Lessor may think fit in all respects at the cost and risk of the Lessee and the Lessor shall not be responsible in any respect whatsoever to the Lessee nor to any person claiming through him for any loss or damage howsoever resulting from such removal or storage and the cost of such removal and storage and of making good any damage to the premises occasioned by such removal shall be a debt due to the Lessor by the Lessee and be recoverable in the same manner as rent.

- (3) That the Lessor shall not be liable to the Lessee nor to any other person whatsoever for any damage directly or indirectly caused by or due to the escape of or introduction into the said premises of water by through or in consequence of or occasioned by defect in any plumbing sprinkler or other pipe or sewerage system or by the bursting running or leaking of any tank washstand closet or waste or other pipes in or about the said premises or the building of which they are a part or for any damage occasioned by water being upon or coming through the roof skylight vent trapdoor or otherwise or for any damage arising from any acts or negligence of the Lessor or the Lessee or their servants agents or workmen or any person or persons whatsoever.
- (4) That should any gas electrical or water fitting air conditioning plant or other fitting appliance or service installed in the said building fail to function or malfunction from any cause whatsoever or should the Lessor for the purpose of maintenance repair or replacement desire or cause such fitting appliance or service to be shut off or removed from the said building the Lessee shall not by reason thereof be entitled to determine this Lease nor shall the Lessee have any right or action or claim for compensation or damages against the Lessor in respect thereof.
- (5) In the event of the Lessee holding over after the expiration or sooner determination of the term granted by this Lease with the consent of the Lessor the Lessee shall become a monthly tenant only of the Lessor at a monthly rental equivalent to the monthly proportion of the total annual rent and the operating expenses payable by the Lessee hereunder at the expiration or sooner determination of such term and otherwise on the same terms and conditions as those herein contained so far as applicable.
- (6) The annual rental payable pursuant to this Lease shall be increased at the end of every year during the term and any extension thereof in the manner prescribed in the FIRST SCHEDULE hereto AND pending any determination of rental the Lessee shall continue to pay on account of rental ultimately determined to be payable rental at the rate current immediately prior to the date of increase and the balance thereof upon determination.
- (7) That the Lessor will on the written request of the Lessee made not more than six (6) months but at least three (3) months before the expiration of the term hereby granted and if there shall not at the time of such request or thereafter be any breach or non observance of any of the covenants conditions or agreements on the part of the Lessee herein contained at the expense of the Lessee grant him a Lease of the said premises for the further term for the period set forth in the EIGHTH SCHEDULE hereto from the expiration of the term hereby granted containing the same covenants conditions and agreements as are herein contained with the exception of this covenant for renewal but reserving a rent payable in respect of the first year thereof and thereafter to be determined in the manner prescribed in the FIRST SCHEDULE hereto AND pending any determination of rental the Lessee shall continue to pay on account of rental ultimately determined to be payable rental at the rate current immediately prior to the date of renewal and the balance thereof upon determination.

- (8) On any occasion on which this lease provides for a determination of rental by reference to the aggregate of the All Groups Index for Adelaide of the Consumer Price Index published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics and if at that time the Australian Bureau of Statistics shall fail to publish an All Groups Index for Adelaide or shall substantially change the basis of such calculation then the rental shall be determined by an independent valuer to be appointed by agreement between the parties or by the President for the time being of the Australian Institute of Valuers Land Economists Inc (SA Division). Such independent valuer shall be acting as an independent expert and not as an arbitrator and the decision of such valuer shall be final and binding upon the parties. The cost of such valuation shall be shared equally between the parties.
- (9) (a) Each of the covenants by the Lessee specified hereunder are essential terms of this Lease:
- (i) The covenant to pay the rent on the due dates for payment of each periodic instalment thereof. (paragraph 1 (1)).
  - (ii) The covenant to pay all gas and electricity charges against the Lessee or the Leased Premises. (paragraph 1 (4)).
  - (iii) The covenant to use the premises only for the permitted use thereof. (paragraph 1 (11)).
  - (iv) The covenant to keep the Leased Premises in good and tenantable repair (paragraph 1 (7)), to paint the interior of the premises (paragraph 1 (18)), to keep the premises clean and tidy (paragraph 1 (23)).
  - (v) The covenant dealing with assignments of the Leased Premises. (paragraph 1 (22)).
- (b) In respect of the Lessee's obligation to pay the rent the acceptance by the Lessor of arrears or of any late payment thereof shall not constitute a waiver of the essentiality of the Lessee's obligation to pay the same in respect of those arrears or of the late payments or in respect of the continuing obligation of the Lessee to pay the said rents during the term of the Lease.

- (c) The Lessee covenants to compensate the Lessor in respect of any breach of an essential term of this Lease and the Lessor is entitled to recover damages from the Lessee in respect of such breaches. The Lessor's entitlement under this Clause is in addition to any other remedy or entitlement to which the Lessor is entitled (including the right to re-enter and determine the estate of the Lessee) and shall not be prejudiced by the exercise of the right of re-entry.
- (10)
- (a) In the event that the Lessee's conduct (whether acts or omissions) constitutes a repudiation of this Lease (or the Lessee's obligations under the Lease) or constitutes a breach of any Lease covenants the Lessee covenants to compensate the Lessor for the loss or damage suffered by reason of the repudiation or breach.
  - (b) The Lessor shall be entitled to recover damages against the Lessee in respect of repudiation or breach of covenant for the damage suffered by the Lessor during the entire term of this Lease.
  - (c) The Lessor's entitlement to recover damages shall not be affected or limited if the Lessee shall abandon or vacate the Leased Premises or if the Lessor shall elect to re-enter or determine the estate of the Lessee or if the Lessor shall accept the Lessee's repudiation or if the conduct of the Lessee or the Lessor shall constitute a surrender by operation of Law.
  - (d) The Lessor shall be entitled to institute legal proceedings claiming damages against the Lessee in respect of the entire Lease Term including the periods before and after the Lessee has vacated the Leased Premises and before and after the abandonment termination repudiation acceptance of repudiation or surrender by operation of Law referred to in the immediate preceding sub-clause whether the proceedings are instituted either before or after such conduct.
  - (e) In the event of the Lessee vacating the Leased Premises whether with or without the Lessor's consent the Lessor shall be obliged to take reasonable steps to mitigate his damages and to endeavour to lease the premises at a reasonable rent and on reasonable terms. The Lessor's entitlement to damages shall be assessed on the basis that the Lessor should have observed the obligation to mitigate damages contained in this clause. The Lessor's conduct taken in pursuance of the duty to mitigate damages shall not by itself constitute acceptance of the Lessee's breach or repudiation or surrender by operation of Law.
- (11) That any demand notice or requisition to be served made or given upon or to the Lessee by the Lessor herein shall be deemed to be duly served made or given if the same be served personally upon the Lessee or left upon some part of the land hereby leased or left at the last known or most usual place of abode of the Lessee in the said State or enclosed in an envelope addressed to the Lessee at his place of residence or business as first above set out and posted by prepaid post at the General or any Post Office or pillar box in the said State AND such demand notice or requisition shall take effect and be deemed to have been duly served upon the day of the same being so served or left as aforesaid and in the case of posting such demand notice or requisition shall take effect and be deemed to have been served two (2) days after the same is posted.

- (12) That where not inconsistent with the context the expression "the Lessee" as used in this Lease shall include the executors or administrators and assigns of the Lessee and where two or more persons are Lessees shall include the lessees and each of them and their respective executors or administrators and assigns and where the Lessee is a company shall include the Lessee its successors and assigns and "the Lessor" shall include the Lessor the executors or administrators and assigns of the Lessor and where two or more persons are Lessors shall include the Lessors and each of them and their respective executors or administrators and assigns and where the Lessor is a company shall include the Lessor its successors and assigns.
