Death Benefit Nomination

This Death Benefit Nomination Form sets out your direction to the trustees as to how you want them to apportion any benefit payable on your death.

This Death Benefit Nomination revokes any other nomination I have made in relation to this Fund.

Member name: Brenda Eunice Fawkes
Member address: 4 Penderlea Drive, West Pennant Hills NSW 2125,
Australia
Member occupation: Home Duties
Member date of birth: 04 November 1981
Member place of birth: Brisbane, Queensland

This is a binding death benefit notice. By completing and signing it you are requiring the trustees to provide any benefit payable on or after your death to the person or persons you mentioned in this notice, being one or more of your dependants or your legal personal representative.

I direct the trustees that the person named in the following table is to receive the proportions specified in that table of the benefit that is payable if I die.

Person	Relationship to Member	Proportion of death benefit
Robert Gordon Fawkes	Husband	100 %
Total (which must total 100%)		100%

If every person named in the table above predeceases the member, then the member directs the trustee to pay the member's death benefit to the member's legal personal representative.

If the member's death benefit is paid to the member's legal personal representative in accordance with this notice, then the member directs the representative to apply the funds for the sole benefit of the member's estate.

If compliance with superannuation law prevents any part of the benefit being paid to the named person(s) then that part of the benefit will be dealt with in accordance with the fund's deed and in accordance with superannuation law.

(Please note that this beneficiary direction is valid for only 3 years.)

In addition, this nomination is valid only if all the nominated beneficiaries are your dependants (or legal personal representative) at the time of your death.

First Notice: The types of death benefit arrangements and the order in which they take effect

The Fund's Deed, depending on the provider and the date of the deed's execution, may allow for three types of death benefit payment arrangements. They, and the order in which they take effect, are as follows:

- a death benefit agreement — which binds the trustee and which does not expire, see Part H of the Deed;
- binding death benefit notices or binding nomination forms — which bind the trustee but which expire after 3 years or earlier if replaced or revoked; and
- non-binding nomination forms — which do not bind the trustee but which do not expire until replaced or revoked.

Death benefit agreements take priority over binding death benefit notices and non-binding nomination forms.

What you need to consider

When you, as a member, are considering signing a binding death benefit notice or a non-binding nomination form it is important to consider that:

- a death benefit agreement takes priority over any binding death benefit notice or any non-binding nomination form;
- to the extent permitted by superannuation law, the trustee must pay or apply the relevant benefit in accordance with the death benefit agreement. Therefore if you sign a binding death benefit notice or a non-binding nomination form, then they will have no effect on any earlier or later death benefit agreement that you sign; and

- if any part of a death benefit agreement is invalid, then the trustee (as required by the Fund's Deed) will pay or apply the "invalid" part of the death benefit in accordance with any binding death benefit notice, or by reference to any non-binding nomination form, you have signed.

Second Notice: Consistency of death benefit arrangements with pension terms

It is important to consider how any death benefit nomination or death benefit agreement interacts with the arrangements for payment of a pension to a reversionary beneficiary. The terms of the pension, and the terms of the death benefit nomination or death benefit agreement should be considered together.

For instance, if the pension terms require an automatic reversionary pension, then the death benefit nomination or death benefit agreement has no effect in relation to that pension. If the member wants to ensure all these arrangements – under pension terms, a death benefit nomination or death benefit agreement – are consistent, or to deliberately vary from one to the other, then careful drafting is required and the member should seek professional advice.
