Total superannuation balance

Your client's total superannuation balance is used to determine their eligibility to make contributions, receive co-contributions, and their spouse's eligibility to claim a tax offset for spouse contributions they make. For your clients who are members of a self-managed super fund, or small APRA fund, the trustee of the fund will also use their members' total superannuation balance to determine whether the segregated assets method can be used to calculate exempt current pension income.

Concessional contributions

These are contributions that are made into the super fund before tax. They are taxed at a rate of 15% in the super fund.

Super funds report the contributions to us and we determine whether they are concessional contributions.

The decisions made with this information can have tax consequences. We recommend independent financial advice specific to individual circumstances is obtained.

Total superannuation balance at 30 June 2022

Financial year

2022-23

Current as at 13 January 2024

Remaining concessional contributions Cap available

$27,500.00

Contributions are within the concessional contributions cap. If the concessional contributions cap is exceeded and the exceeded amount is not released, more tax may be due.

Further considerations

- > Concessional contributions may not be reported until 31 October for members of a defined benefit fund.
- > Concessional contributions made to a self-managed fund will not be displayed until we have received and processed the annual return.
- > Concessional contributions will affect additional tax on contributions under Division 293.
- > Refer to previous records or contact the fund (or funds) after 31 October to obtain more up-to-date information.
